Any shareholder who desires to have an item considered at the Annual Meeting, including any proposed amendment to the By-Laws, shall make a written request to the Board of Directors to have such item included in the Meeting Notice at least sixty (60) days prior to the date of the Annual Meeting.

Section 2. Special Meetings. Special meetings of stockholders, other than those regulated by statute, may be called at any time by a majority of the Board of Directors. Notice of such meeting, stating the purpose for which it is called, shall be given not less than five (5) nor more than twenty (20) days before the date set for such meeting. No business other than that specified in the notice shall be transacted at any special meeting of stockholders. Shareholders may call for a special stockholder meeting by a majority of shareholders petitioning the board to hold such meeting stating the purpose for which it is called. The Board of Directors will have 15 days to schedule the stockholder requested special meeting to be held within 45 days of formal request.

Section 3. Quorum. Except as otherwise provided in the Certificate of Incorporation, the presence, in person or by proxy, of the holders of a majority of the outstanding shares of the Corporation’s capital stock entitled to vote shall be necessary to constitute a

If, however, a quorum shall not be present or represented at any meeting of the stockholders, the stockholders entitled to vote there at present in person or represented by proxy, shall have the right to adjourn the meeting from time to time, until a quorum shall be present or represented. At such adjourned meeting at which a quorum shall be present or represented, any business may be transacted which might have been transacted at the meeting as originally noticed.

Section 4. Record Date. For the purpose of determining the stockholders entitled to notice of or to vote at any meeting of stockholders or any adjournment thereof, or to express consent to or dissent from any proposal without a meeting, or for the purpose of determining stockholders entitled to receive payment of any dividend or the allotment of any rights, or for the purpose of any other action affecting the interests of stockholders, the Board of Directors may fix, in advance, a record date. Such date shall not be more than sixty (60) nor less than ten (10) days before the date of any such meeting, nor more than sixty (60) days prior to any other action. In each case, except as otherwise provided by law, only such persons as shall be stockholders of record on the date so fixed shall be entitled to notice of, and to vote at, such meeting and any adjournment thereof, or to express such consent or dissent, or to receive payment of such dividend, or such allotment of rights, or otherwise to be recognized as stockholders for any related purpose, notwithstanding any registration or transfer of shares on the books of the Corporation after any such record date so fixed.

Any proxy which names someone other than a shareholder will not be recognized as valid. When a proxy is given in relation to a specific meeting, such proxy shall expire at the end of such meeting. No proxy shall be valid after the expiration of eleven (11) months from the date thereof, unless otherwise provided in the proxy. Every proxy shall be revocable at the pleasure of the stockholder executing it, except in those cases where an irrevocable proxy is permitted by law.

Section 7. Consents. Whenever by any provision of law the vote of the stockholders at a meeting thereof is required or permitted to be taken in connection with any corporate action, the meeting and vote of stockholders may be dispensed with, if all the stockholders who would have been entitled to vote upon the action, if such meeting were held, shall consent in writing to such corporate action being taken. The notice shall set forth the name of the proposed transferee (the "Proposed Transferee") and the proposed purchase price (the "Proposed Purchase Price") and shall constitute an offer by such stockholder to sell each and all of such stockholder's shares to the Corporation at the lower of the Proposed Purchase Price or the selling stockholder's proportionate share of the Fair Market Value (as hereinafter defined) of the Corporation. The Corporation shall have sixty (60) days from the date of receipt of the notice during which to accept the offer. If the Corporation accepts the offer, the closing shall take place within ninety (90) days of the date the Corporation notifies the selling stockholder of the Corporation's acceptance of the offer. The first quarterly installment shall be due and payable on the first day of the fourth calendar month following the month during which the closing occurs (together with interest from the date of the closing to the first day of the month following the month during which the closing occurs). The unpaid balance of any Note may be prepaid, either in whole or in part, at any time and from time to time, without penalty. If the Corporation does not accept the offer within the sixty (60) day period set forth above, the selling shareholder may sell all, but not less than all, of his shares to the Proposed Transferee at the Proposed Purchase Price at any time within the sixty (60) day period following the Corporation's rejection of the offer. In no event shall the shares of the Corporation be transferred to a Proposed Transferee without first obtaining the approval of a plurality of the votes cast at a meeting of shareholders where the approval of such Proposed Transferee is submitted for a vote. In the event the shares are not sold within such period, the shares shall again become subject to all of the conditions and restrictions of this Section 2.

(c) Notwithstanding anything herein contained to the contrary, the Board shall have the right exercisable at any time, to suspend the right to make any transfer of shares (whether pursuant to Sections 2(a) or 2(b) hereof) for a one (1) year period, subject to such exceptions, if any, as the Board may adopt.

Private camps were generally governed by a lease between the Company and such owner. All such leases are hereby declared null and void and of no further effect and this Section 4 shall solely govern the ownership and use of the Private Camps. The location of each such Private Camp and the improvements constructed thereon as of the date hereof, are hereby deemed approved by the Board of Directors. Each Private Camp owner is responsible for the conduct and care of his agents and will hold the Company harmless from any liability or responsibility for damage to property or injury caused by the stockholder or his guests.

(b) Creation of Private Camps. No Private Camp shall be created without first obtaining the approval of the Board of Directors. Such approval may be withheld in the sole and absolute discretion of the Board of Directors. In no event may a new Private Camp be constructed within 1,000 lineal feet of the edge of the improved area of any existing Private Camp without the prior written consent of the owner or owners of such affected Private Camp(s).

(c) Privacy. Each Private Camp owner shall provide other stockholders with reasonable access to the land, including ingress and egress over the Private Camp. Notwithstanding the above, the stockholders acknowledge and agree that the exclusive use of the property and the privacy of a Private Camp owner is of primary concern. Stockholder access to a Private Camp shall not create an unreasonable disturbance to a Private Camp owner’s exclusive enjoyment of the property. If stockholder access to a Private Camp creates an unreasonable disturbance or nuisance on a Private Camp, such Private Camp owner shall raise the dispute regarding stockholder access to the Private Camp with the Board of Directors. The Board of Directors shall have the right to resolve such dispute in its sole and absolute discretion.

(c) Ownership. If, subject to the reasonable approval of the Board of Directors, a stockholder makes improvements on the Private Camp, the stockholder will have ownership of such improvements but will not have ownership of the land on which such improvements are made. If the Corporation transfers any land on which a stockholder has made improvements, the stockholder shall be paid the fair market value of the improvements made by such stockholder.

(d) Transfer of Capital Stock. If a stockholder transfers his stock in the Company, the transferee will accede to the rights of the transferor stockholder with respect to the Private Camp and any improvements made thereon.

(e) Real Estate Taxes. Private Camp owners shall be liable for their share of real estate taxes upon receipt of the assessment. Delinquent taxes shall be subject to a two percent (2%) monthly interest charge. Any stockholder who has not paid the real property taxes by the start of a subsequent hunting season shall have his hunting and fishing access privileges denied until payment is made in full.

(f) Amendment. The provisions of this Section 4 may be amended only by unanimous vote of the stockholders.
